Assistant Headteacher Update

There is certainly an air of excitement in school at the moment. We have been visited by a naughty elf, Elfvis. So far he has caused lots of mischief, which the children have loved to find and report to us all every morning. We hope you have enjoyed hearing about it too and we cannot wait to see what he will get up to over the next few weeks.

In Year 2, we have been writing a character description of the ferocious Wild Thing. The children have been inspired by the book 'Where the Wild Things are' by Maurice Sendak and they have created some terrifying descriptions. We have introduced similes (comparing one thing with another thing of a different kind) into our writing, for example, 'The Wild Thing's teeth are as poisonous as a snake' or 'The Wild Thing's skin is like a scaly mermaid tail'. These descriptions have made our own Wild Thing come to life.

In maths, the children have been using multiplication and division methods and applying them to reasoning problems. They have used counters to represent arrays for multiplication and the number line method to work out division problems. Next, we will look at time and introduce quarter past and quarter to.

At the beginning of the Autumn Term in their humanities lesson, the children learnt all about the Gunpowder Plot and the role Guy Fawkes played in it. We are further developing our knowledge in our guided reading lessons with the text 'Mr Fawkes, The King and the Gunpowder Plot'. This is a fictional tale based on the real events that took place in 1605. The children have discovered how King James I may have felt at the time and how the King's men helped to uncover this frightening plot!

Our class teachers are continuing to set homework each week on Google Classrooms, but if you are looking for some extra activities, one of the many things children love to do at this time of year is to send Christmas cards. Christmas cards are a great way for your child to practise their writing as well as their handwriting and we encourage them to do as much as they can on their own. We have our own postbox in school where we would like to invite all children to post their cards. These will then be delivered to the children in their classes. However, to support the delivery process, please take a look at the Christmas letter you received which explains how to set out the envelope. Writing envelopes is another skill that your child can practise as they write their cards.

What do our Year 2 children have to say?

In writing I have loved creating my own Wild Thing and describing it using adjectives and similes. Allyssa, Dublin

I have really enjoyed learning how arrays work and how they can help me with my times tables. I had so much fun watching our science experiments in Lisbon, it was funny when the bouncy egg broke in the sink! We even did an experiment that looked like a lava lamp! Hassan, Lisbon

I have enjoyed reading about how Guy Fawkes and his men plotted to blow up the Houses of Parliament. I like learning the names of all the plotters. Guvi, Rome

As a school we would also like to remind you of the following:

- Earrings must be studs, religious bands are allowed but no necklaces, bracelets please.
- Watches are allowed, including analogue, digital and fitness trackers (step counters); however, smart-watches are not permitted as some have apps and/or can maintain connectivity to phones which can become a distraction and are deemed as a safeguarding risk.

Keep your child safe on WhatsApp

0

What are the risks?

- Bullying, particularly in group chats
- Seeing content of a sexual nature, or showing violence and hatred
- Settings that allow messages to disappear after 24 hours or 7 days
- Sharing their live location, particularly with people they don't know in person
- Spam or hoax messages
- Being exposed to strangers through group chats
- WhatsApp says the minimum age to use it is 16, but younger children can still use it easily

6 steps to help your child use WhatsApp safely

- Keep their personal information and location private
- 2. Remind your child to be careful about what they share
- Remind your child to remember that they can leave group chats
- 4. Make sure your child knows how to report and block people
- Encourage your child to watch out for spam and hoax messages

Tell us at HVPA about any bullying your child experiences - look for signs like being afraid or reluctant to go to school, feeling nervous, losing confidence or becoming distressed and withdrawn, or losing sleep.
