Assistant Headteacher Update

A warm, autumnal welcome to our second half term of this academic year.

It was so wonderful to be welcomed back to school with many smiles and greetings from the children - it was a real reminder of how polite they are and how lovely it was to be asked what I got up to over half term! I had heard about so many sleepovers, 'trick or treating' and many getaways; the children are really lucky to have so much love and support.

Coming up this half term, we have lots of interesting topics to cover

In maths, we are continuing with fractions and then moving onto position and direction.

We are currently doing a recount in writing, changing the perspective of the classic tale the Three Little Pigs. We have started a new book in reading called The Boy at the Back of the Class. It's very emotional and even made Mr Hutton cry so we are looking forward to the discussions it will bring!

In Humanities we are continuing to learn about Japan, but this time with the focus being on its political history. This term in PSHE we are going to be planning a fundraising project to support homeless people in Peterborough. Shortly, we will be back to Hampton College to take part in the cross-country festival. We are well prepared given we only ran our mini-marathon a couple of weeks ago.

Year 6 also have their One Day Creative workshop on 6th December which we are really looking forward to - thank you to so many who have already made their contributions.

And of course, parents' evenings are next Monday and Wednesday until 6:30pm. Please arrive a few minutes before so our wonderful prefects can escort you to the right classrooms; you are welcome to have some time before to look at your child's books and we would be very grateful if you could complete a questionnaire before you exit.

Have a wonderful weekend.

REMINDER

Please make sure you send your children to school with a healthy lunch and snacks.

Goslings update.

As you will see from the photo's our Gosling children have been harvesting the pumpkins, Butternut squash and guards that they planted earlier in the year. They were taught how to cut them safely from the vines. Forest School is an amazing area that is open to our children, every night. As the nights start to draw in, our children will be offered more activities inside school, these will include Homework club, we will help children who may find it hard to complete their homework online or on paper, we will read with your children, leaving the time they have with yourselves for things you can do together.

We are going to introduce some cooking opportunities, which every child will have the opportunity to do and bring home if they wish. Wonderland for the children who like to read quietly or be part of a group listening to a member of the Goslings staff read. The Hubble, for homework, investigations or simply to play some games. We are going to start making Christmas decorations and Christmas items in the next few weeks
