Task 4:

Play Spelling Shed to practice your spellings set by your teacher.

All the children have been given accounts for Spelling Shed to access at school and at home (log-in details are stuck inside the children's reading records). They will be set their weekly spellings using this platform, which they can practice at home ready for their weekly spelling test. We look forward to seeing how they get on with this exciting, new programme.

Task 15: Creative writing:

It had been a time of great change. The humans were to blame.

Their world was disappearing inch by precious inch: a lush, sun-drenched land full of colour and life becoming a barren, grey wasteland.

What would become of them all? Was there even a future?

Can you continue the story?

Task 16: Question Time:

How are the two sides of the picture different?

Why do you think they are different?

Is there anything like this happening in our world?

What do you think it would feel like to be in either place?

How might the two cities be different?

What will the people in both cities be like?

Would it be possible for the grey side to become like the colourful side again?

Task 18: Reading

Read the text and
answer the questions.

What Happened to Captain Scott?

9 Captain Robert Falcon Scott set out on his journey
17 to the Antarctic in 1910, using mechanical sledges.
27 When those sledges failed, he had to rely on the 38 few dogs he had taken to pull him, his men and
40 their equipment.

48 When they finally reached the South Pole in 56 January 1912, they discovered that a team of
63 explorers from Norway had arrived before them.

73 Scott and his team had to travel back 800 miles
80 through freezing temperatures and ice. They had
88 poor clothing and very little food and sadly,
95 they died. Many months later, a search
102 party found their bodies and buried them
105 in the snow.

Quick Questions

1. Why did dogs have to pull Scott's sledges?

2. Which word has the author used in the second paragraph to show that it took a long time for them to get to the South Pole?

3. How do you think Scott and his men felt when they knew someone had got to the South Pole before them?

4. Where were Scott and his team finally buried?

GrammarSaurus

Remember: A subordinating clause is a part of a sentence that adds additional information to the main clause. A subordinating conjunction is simply the word/words that is used to join a subordinating clause to another clause or sentence.

E.g. He was annoyed because the train stopped.

YEAR 3 HOMEWORK

Task 14: Creative writing:

Down in the town, streets became abandoned as people scuttled into their houses to escape the sudden downpour. Those left stranded took shelter under their umbrellas, or those without darted to find cover in shop doorways. Many 'tut-tutted' as they went, glancing up at the sky and frowning. It did seem to have rained a lot recently!

The weather in this particular town had always been strange. The town's inhabitants would often debate the current weather over their breakfasts, jokingly asking "wouldn't it be wonderful if someone could control the weather?" That was, of course, a ridiculous thing to say. No-one could control the weather, could they?!

Can you continue the story of the Weather Tree?

Task 15: Question Time:

What causes the weather to change in this town?

Can you explain how different types of weather are generated?

Who is the figure that lives in the tree?

Who do you think lives in the town?

How are they similar/different to use?

What came first: the town or the tree?

Amazing Facts about the Human Body

- 8 • Your heart beats around one hundred thousand times
19 per day. This means that in one year it has pumped
28 around three million litres of blood around your body.
- 35 • Your nose can tell the difference between 39 one trillion different smells.
- 49 • The acid inside your stomach that helps you to digest
54 food can actually dissolve metal.
- 60 • The smallest bone in the human 66 body can be found inside the 73 ear. It is called the stapes (or 79 stirrup) bone and it is only
83 around three millimetres long.
- 88 • Your nose and ears continue
90 growing throughout
93 your entire life.
- 98 • As well as having unique
103 finger prints, all humans also
107 have unique tongue prints!

Task 18: Reading

Read the text and
answer the questions.

Great Galapagos

11 Thank you for joining us today; my name is David and 22 I will be your tour guide. The Pacific Ocean and the 30 enchanted volcanic islands of Galapagos are places unlike 40 any other. They are home to an incredible collection of 49 animals who have adapted to the harsh landscape around
58 them. Most of them were discovered by an astounded
69 Charles Darwin on his first trip to these islands over two
72 hundred years ago.

83 On our right, you can see one of the islands' most 90 remarkable inhabitants – the giant tortoise. There are 102 hundreds of them on the beach at any time, lying in the 112 sun to warm their blood and gather energy. Many may 124 be older than you are right now and some will live for 130 over one hundred years. Impressive, right?

Quick Questions

1. Who discovered most of the animals on the Galapagos Islands?

2. Sum up the second paragraph in 20 words or less.

---

3. How has the author made the Galapagos Islands sound special within the text?

---

4. Name one other creature you could expect to see on this tour.
