 CHALLENGE: Write a responding letter to a pen pal using the following letter

Hi everyone!

My name is Gani and I am a student at a school in Rome. Rome is the capital city of Italy and it is an amazing place to live. Did you know that the Romans lived there and built something called the coliseum? I live in a flat with my mum and my little sister, she is only 3. Where in the world do you live? Who do you live with?

At school I really enjoy learning how to speak English and I hope that one day I can come and visit England. I would love to go and see Buckingham Palace and see the famous Queens Guards! Have you been to London before and seen them? What were they like? I also really enjoy Art lessons, we have been making self-portraits this term and I was so proud of mine because it took me a long time to get better at drawing.

Outside of school I play football for a local football team. I play in goal and love winning games. I also support A.S Roma the biggest football team in Rome. Every Saturday I go to the matches with my Uncle. Do you like football?

At the moment we aren't going to school everyday because of the spread of the coronavirus. At first I felt really scared but things seem to be getting better now. Instead of going to school I have been doing lots of learning at home and in the park with my mum. She is actually quite a good teacher! Yesterday we did a science experiment and made a homemade lava lamp. It was so cool. Have you been going to school during these strange times? I hope you and your family are safe.

I look forward to your reply.

From Gani
